Couple Finds Wedded Bliss on Tamarack's Greens

EAST BRUNSWICK – This time of year, the season's autumnal hues flank the greens at Tamarack Golf Course in East Brunswick.

Earlier this month, however, splashes of bright red and black punctuated the usual color palette, as an entourage of bridesmaids and groomsmen stormed the greens for a one-of-a-kind photo op.

For the first time in recent memory, the Middlesex County courses hosted a post-wedding photo shoot for local couple Michael Choueiri and Erin McLaughlin.

The two were married at St. Bartholomew's Church on Riders Lane in East Brunswick Oct. 11.

The newly pronounced man-and-wife, along with their entire wedding party, arrived at Tamarack in a white, 18-passenger limousine, immediately following their ceremony.

As if sanctioned by Mother Nature, earlier rain had cleared, making way for clear skies and a temperate 55-degree day.

"Erin comes from a family of golfers," Choueiri said. "I'm an East Brunswick High School graduate and I've recently taken up golf. We were married in East Brunswick and we really wanted to celebrate our marriage at our local golf course."

Between holes, nearby golfers were able to take in the unusual spectacle.

Fall shades and wedding festivities aside, players frequent these two award-winning, 18-hole golf courses in East Brunswick to test their abilities year round.
